The DoD has found that viewing the complex issues facing the Department through a multidisciplinary advisory committee provides the Department and, more importantly, the American public with a broader understanding of the issues on which to base subsequent policy decisions.

4. Other Balance Factors: NA
5. Candidate Identification Process: Based on statutory requirements in the Board's authorizing statute, the Department of Defense (DoD) uses a variety of methods to identify potential Board members because of the various statutory requirements.

The Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness (USD(P&R)), in consultation with senior Defense leaders, identifies potential candidates to serve as the Board's Chair. Once identified, the USD(P&R) will recommend these candidates by the Secretary of Defense for consideration according to established DoD procedures.

The Secretaries of the Military Department will each select two, for a total of six, active or retired reserve officers or enlisted members to serve on the Board. Once selected, the Secretaries of the Military Departments will forward their recommended nominees to the Board's Designated Federal Officer (DFO) for consideration by the Secretary of Defense according to established DoD procedures.

The DFO, on behalf of the Chair, will request candidates for the Board's Military Executive and Military Enlisted Advisor from the Military Services. Once identified, the Chair will interview each nominee and make a final recommendation to the Secretary of Defense according to established DoD procedures.

With regard to the 10 members required by 10 U.S.C. § 10301(c)(6), the DFO will identify potential candidates to serve on the Board. When identifying potential candidates, the DFO will also consult with senior Defense officials, members of the Board, and the Board's professional staff. Once identified, the USD(P&R) forwards the recommended nominees to the Secretary of Defense according to established DoD procedures.

The Secretary of Homeland Security will select one active or retired reserve officer or enlisted member of the U.S. Coast Guard for appointment to the Board. The selection and approval process by the Secretary of Homeland Security will be according to established Department of Homeland Security procedures and is not subject to further approval by the Secretary of Defense.

When considering potential candidates for appointment by the Secretary of Defense, the Secretaries of the Military Departments, the USD(P&R), and the Chair will evaluate potential candidates based on the criteria in 10 U.S.C. § 10301(c), while striving to achieve a balance between the professional credentials of the individuals and the Board's statutory experience requirements. Potential candidates will be further evaluated in accordance with DoD policies and procedures, which include compliance with the prohibition against lobbyists. Prior to nominating the potential candidates, the list of candidates will undergo a review by the Office of the General Counsel for the Department of Defense and the Advisory Committee Management Officer (ACMO) to ensure compliance with Federal and DoD governance requirements, including compliance with the Board's charter and membership balance plan. Following this review, the USD(P&R) discusses his or her potential nominees with the Secretary of Defense or the Deputy Secretary of Defense and receives authority to proceed with the individual's nomination.

Pursuant to DoD policy, only the Secretary or the Deputy Secretary of Defense can invite or approve the appointment of individuals to serve on DoD established or supported advisory committees and subcommittees. The Secretary of Defense or the Deputy Secretary of Defense may approve the appointment of members to the Board, to include its subcommittees, for one-to-four year terms of service, with annual renewals. However, no member, unless authorized by the Secretary of Defense or the Deputy Secretary of Defense, may serve more than two consecutive terms of service on the Board, to include its subcommittees. The USD(P&R), as the Board's Sponsor, in consultation with the ACMO, is authorized to administratively certify the appointment of Board members that were previously approved by the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense. Consistent with Deputy Secretary of Defense policy and the authority delegated to the ACMO by the Assistant Deputy Chief Management Officer, the ACMO is authorized to administratively certify the annual renewal of appointment of Board members.

Following approval or authorization to proceed with the appointment by the Secretary of Defense or the Deputy Secretary of Defense, the candidates are required to complete the necessary appointment paperwork, to include meeting ethics requirements stipulated by the Office of Government Ethics for advisory committee members who are appointed as SGE members.

Membership vacancies for the Board and its subcommittees will be filled in the same manner as described in the previous nine paragraphs above.

6. Subcommittee Balance: DoD, when necessary and consistent with the Board's mission and DoD policies and procedures, may establish subcommittees, task forces, or working groups to support the Board.

Currently, DoD has approved three permanent subcommittees to the Board. The subcommittees will have no more than 15 members and will normally meet once per quarter. As the Sponsor, the USD(P&R) is delegated the authority to appoint the Chair of each subcommittee from those individuals appointed by the Secretary of Defense or the Deputy Secretary of Defense. The three permanent subcommittees and their missions are:

- a. Subcommittee on Enhancing DoD's Role in the Homeland is focused on improving the capability and capacity of the reserve component to address the increasing threats to the homeland.

- b. Subcommittee on Ensuring a Ready, Capable, Available, and Sustainable Operational Reserve is focused on retaining the operational capability and experience within the reserve component to meet future threats.
- c. Subcommittee on Supporting and Sustaining Reserve Component Personnel assess whether the current Service member, families, and employers programs and policies are meeting the needs of an operational reserve.

The Secretary of Defense or the Deputy Secretary of Defense approves the appointment of subcommittee members in the same manner as members of the Board, for a term of service of one-to-four years, with annual renewals. Individuals considered for appointment to any subcommittee of the Board may come from the Board itself or from new nominees, as recommended by the USD(P&R) and based upon the subject matters under consideration.

Consistent with DoD policy, the USD(P&R) as the Board's Sponsor, in consultation with the ACMO, is authorized to administratively certify the appointment of subcommittee members previously approved for appointment to the Board or any other DoD advisory committee by the Secretary or Deputy Secretary of Defense. If the prospective subcommittee member is not a member of the Board or another DoD advisory committee, then the USD(P&R) will obtain approval or authority to proceed with the appointment in the same manner required of Board members. All individual subcommittee member appointments must be approved in writing according to DoD policy and procedures. Candidates are required to complete the necessary appointment paperwork, to include meeting any ethics requirements stipulated by the Office of Government Ethics for advisory committee members, before the subcommittee members may engage in any subcommittee work.

Subcommittee members, if not full-time or permanent part-time Federal officers or employees, shall be appointed as experts or consultants pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 3109 to serve as SGE members. Those individuals who are not full-time or permanent part-time Federal officers or employees shall serve as RGE members pursuant to 41 C.F.R. § 102-3.130(a). No subcommittee member may serve more than two consecutive terms of service without the Secretary of Defense or the Deputy Secretary of Defense approval.

- 7. Other: As nominees are considered for appointment to the Board, the DoD adheres to the Office of Management and Budget's Revised Guidance on Appointment of Lobbyists to Federal Committees, Boards, and Commissions (79 FR 27482; August 13, 2014) and the rules and regulations issued by the Office of Government Ethics.
